

THE TREASURE OF MAY HILL

A Musical Adventure CUES

Overture

,,, of an all-pervading sense of gloom.

1. Air of Gloom

... are called to order and discuss how to lift the mood and give everyone a boost.

2. The Town Council

... maintains a friendly and welcoming yet military bearing throughout his domain.

3. The Landlord

... and the villagers are showing off their musical skills.

Intermezzo – string quartet only

... with a demeanour most dour to match. It is – The Tax Man.

4. The Tax Man

... shake their bells, dancing to a squeeze box and fiddle.

5. May Day Morris

... to a garret bereft of hope or bodily sustenance.

6. The Despair

... a storm is crashing through the trees at its summit.

7. The Storm

... a being of Benevolence and Blessing, if the old tales hold true.

8. The Spirit

... the dreams of those who know they have found their treasure true.

9. Composer's Gold – solo violin, solo viola only

... pleasing on the roaming, roving eyes of those long spiced.

10. Wilma's Return

... all acclamation most gladly given; all accounts met.

Intermezzo – string quartet only

... Riches reaching beyond realms already are yours.

11. Finale